Committee Reports:

Land Committee Repo

Chief Few shared with the board that he will most likely have to hire another electrician to finish the unfinished work at Station 4.

Integration Committee Report

Chief Few reported that he has had a few meeting with the mayor and city clerk. The city has asked for some documentation, but no other updates at this time.

Employment Committee Report

Chief Few reported that one of the applicants that had accepted an offer decided at the last minute not to take the offer. Chief contacted another applicant, presented him with an offer and he started work here today.

Finance Committee Report

No Report

Old Business

Chief gave an update on the FEMA claim from Hurricane Sally. The claim was broken down into three projects. One is for the wages that were spent on preparations for the storm. Two involves equipment used and volunteer time. Third was for the management time to put the application together. To date approximately $5,400.00 has been received under project one.

New Business

Chief reported to the board that the engine that he ordered a year ago is due this month. Discussion between Chief and Sunbelt about some discrepancies with the dates Sunbelt has vs dates we have. The start date determines the delivery dated. The contract date noted is April 20, 2020. The pre-build date is listed May 11, 2020. Sunbelt has the payment-received date listed as May 20, 2020. A motion for the board to accept the date of contract of May 11, 2020 made by Chief Few. Tim Shaner seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously.

Meeting adjourned at 6:20 pm

The next board meeting will be on Monday June 14, 2021

Respectfully Submitted,
